1. INTRODUCTION

The Government of West Bengal has set up ASANSOL DURGAPUR DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY (ADDA) in Asansol-Durgapur region for planned and scientific management of growth & sustainable development. ADDA was established under the West Bengal Town & Country (Planning & Development) Act 1979, (West Bengal Act XIII of 1979) merging the Asansol Planning Organisation, Asansol (Estd. 1964) and the Durgapur Development Authority, Durgapur (Estd. 1958) with effect from 1st April, 1980. ASANSOL DURGAPUR DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY has been spearheading the cause of industrial, infrastructural and other development activities under its jurisdiction, which extends from Panagarh to Barakar with a total area of 1615.90 sq. km. covering about 30 lakhs of both rural and urban population.

Acting as a catalyst for infrastructural growth and technological advancement, ADDA is duly giving shape to a host of industrial estates, growth centers and industrial and residential townships. Some major achievements are visible in developing quality urban infrastructure in this region. ADDA has given special emphasis on development of infrastructure in its planning area with a view towards overall urban growth.

It presently witnesses a boom in the educational, retail, hospitality, housing, entertainment and knowledge industry sectors, offering entrepreneurs in these fields the requisite infrastructure. Durgapur and Asansol is one of the prime movers in the changing face of West Bengal, and is the best alternative to any crowded metro in the country.

It was established as an industrial city much before any other in this region. Till date it remains a major attraction to heavy industry due to its location and access to raw material like coal, iron-ore etc. The location advantage of Asansol Durgapur region has increased with the 4 lanning of NH19 and now construction work of another two lanes has been commenced. With its base of raw material, skilled labour, location and basic infrastructure, Asansol-Durgapur certainly forms one of the most attractive destinations for industries from Steel to IT/ITES and retail outlets. The region has seen a phenomenal growth in the past decades and ADDA has collaborated with all growth oriented organisations in the area to ensure that it is planned scientifically.

City Centre at Durgapur, with the administrative offices, shopping mall, multiplex, auditorium, amusement park and other amenities of modern life has grown as a Centre of Commercial and Cultural Activities of the industrial city. KSTP, Asansol has also become the growth center of Asansol with development of Shristinagar, Sugam park, Chitra More, Srijan commercial hub (Galaxy Mall), institutional and industrial development due to its proximity to existing Asansol main business centre and NH19.

This plot of land is within Industrial cluster of Durgapur and major, medium, land, large industrial units are established. Communication with highway through industrial road with available power supply from established industrial power service sub-stations would strengthen the units for having establishment in fast track mode.
